For over 100 years, Kansai Nerolac has been the colour behind India's homes.
As part of Kansai Paint Japan, one of the world's leading paint manufacturers we bring together global technology and innovation expertise of how India lives, builds, and dreams.

Our journey has connected people across mighty bridges and dams, ushered in India's first modern day car Maruti Suzuki 800, and pioneered the launch of low VOC, no-heavy metal paints. Along the way, we've brought beauty and durability not just to walls, but to vehicles, homes, appliances, furniture, and more.

From the first coat of paint on a newlywed couple's first home, to the walls that have watched generations grow up within them,
Nerolac has stood for trust, quality, and deep & colour expertise.
Today we are India's most loved paint only brand, present in millions of homes across the country, not just as a product but as colours that leave lasting positive energy amongst people living in that space.

Where every carving tells a story in stone.

Tamil Nadu is home to some of India's most magnificent architecture. At its southernmost tip, Kanyakumari rises where three seas meet the Vivekananda Rock Memorial and the towering Thiruvalluvar Statue. Every landscape reflects a deep and enduring culture.

This architectural legacy transforms into colours that celebrate enduring beauty, bringing the essence of Tamil Nadu into homes.

Some places change with the seasons.
Here, the seasons shape the way people live.

Across South India's western coast, green defines everything- mist-laced tea gardens climbing hill slopes, fragrant spice plantations, and coffee estates unfurling across the Western Ghats in endless shades of green, each rooted in the land's deep, verdant character.

These enduring landscapes inspire colours that bring freshness, warmth and effortless harmony into contemporary homes.
